SALT LAKE R. R. PUTS ON GIANT PROGRAM

Gigantic program of improvements for the Salt Lake Lines to cost more than $5,000,000 was announced yesterday by Salt Lake officials, copies of the announcement reaching joint Santa Fe and Salt Lake offices in San Bernardino.

The improvement program includes rebuilding of tracks, bridges, stations and in rolling equipment. Detailed plans of the expenditure of the $5,000,000—the largest sum devoted to improvements by any railroad since the war—are not yet out of the hands of engineers and officials.

Beginning at Riverside, the Salt Lake operates over its own lines to Los Angeles, Long Beach and San Pedro. Improvements along this line to cost thousands of dollars are contemplated.

Included in the improvement program, it is believed, is a plan to extend the Salt Lake lines into the Santa Ana district, a move which President Gray of the Union Pacific favored when in Southern California on an inspection trip several weeks ago.

Construction work in the building program is expected to start late in the year.

COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD DIS- CUSSES GEOGRAPHIES

Whether the county board of education will make a recommendation to the state board on the matter of geographies to be put into use, was not decided at the meeting Wednesday at the office of Mrs. Grace Stanley, county school superintendent. Members of the board were in session throughout the day, conferring with representatives of the American Book Company, and others who are presenting books for state adoption.

The board will again consider the matter during the week of county teachers' examinations, August 26, and will at that time decide what to recommend, or whether any recommendation will be made. The regular meeting of the state board of education will be held in September and recommendations from the various counties of the state will be taken up at that time, though books decided upon will not be put into use until the following year.

IN THE SHADOW

The death occurred on Tuesday at his home on 25th street of Samuel Crane Baldwin from tuberculosis, at the age of 45. Services were held yesterday afternoon by the Rev. C. H. Edwards, arrangements being in charge of the Owen Funeral home at Ontario. Mr. Baldwin is survived by his wife.

MANY ACRES IN THIS COUNTY TO BE SOLD

Efforts are being made by W. S. Kingsbury, state surveyor general and register of the state land office, to sell 270,329 acres of land in San Bernardino County to provide more funds for the schools of the state. Since the enactment of a new law two years ago, the surveyor general instead of the county treasurer, has charge of the sales of all school lands.

California has 750,338 acres of vacant school lands. More than one-third of the land is in San Bernardino County. The state under a grant from the federal government holds sections Nos. 16 and 35 in every township. Other sections are held by the Government and by the Southern Pacific railroad.

Under the laws of the state, persons desiring the land for any purpose shall make a written application to the surveyor general asking him to advise when the sale will be held and requesting that the certain property be included in the next sale.

Purchase on Easy Terms
The persons who buy the school lands can pay one-tenth of the price down and the balance in 10 annual payments or can simply pay the six per cent interest every year until the property is paid for.

Most of the lands sell for from $1 to $5 an acre. In the last land sale, a number of oil men were here and bid high prices for the property running the average for land sales up. Under the laws recently passed, when oil is found the state can lease the property on a royalty and the schools get a benefit from the oil found.

It is claimed that there is some school land available in this county which is valuable as grazing or farming land. In some places water can be gotten at a reasonable depth and it is expected that much of the land will be taken up at the next land sale here.

The school lands are sold at the Court House here whenever the surveyor general finds that he has enough applications to pay him for the trip here. It is expected that there will be a sale of school lands some time this fall or winter.

Mineral Lands in Demand
M. W. H. Williams, county treasurer, who receives the payments on mineral lands is growing. He claims that this year will see a great advance in the mining industry. Mineral claims are worth more today than they have been in a number of years, according to the official.

In addition to the 270,329 acres of land in this county, other counties have large acreages as follows: Inyo, 152,612; Lassen, 60,255; Riverside, 49,666; Imperial, 31,000; Modoc, 29,500; and Siskiyou, 26,054.

DETOURS CAUSE OF ACCIDENTS

That accidents, delays and miles of ploughing through seas of mud have been caused by the amateurish building of detours by the State Highway Commission is a charge made by the Automobile Club of Southern California, and that both resident and visiting motorists have suffered thereby. Many of these detours, it is alleged, have been made necessary by reason of repairing highways which have crumbled because of inferior construction.

"The lower end of the Ridge road," the Automobile Club says, "will be virtually impossible to detour."

"On the Ventura road the reconstruction that has been done and is now under way necessitates detouring traffic over much longer distances, and especially through the Conejo district."

"On the coast road north of Santa Barbara the reconstruction which must soon be done will necessitate the providing of detours at great expense."

VAN COPLIN HURT WHEN HIT BY AUTO

Loses Thumb in Collision on Riverside Road. Machines Escape Serious Damage

Van Coplin, age, who makes his home with an uncle, E. T. Jordan, San Antonio Avenue and Ninth Street, sustained a compound fracture of the left arm, probable internal injuries, and the thumb of his left hand was almost completely severed at shortly after 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, when the motorcycle he was riding on Ontario boulevard near Collins Station collided with a motor car driven by H. E. Stratton, Pomona Auto Service Station proprietor.

Coplin, who was accompanied by H. A. Davis of West Tenth street, in a side car attached to the motorcycle, was enroute to Riverside. Evidently believing the road clear, he is said to have swung to the left to pass a wagon loaded with hay, just as Stratton was approaching in the opposite direction. Stratton endeavored to avoid collision and thought he had missed the motorcycle but it struck his rear fender. Davis, who was in the side car, escaped injury.

Coplin was rushed to the office of Dr. J. H. Titus for first aid treatment, and later removed to the San Antonio hospital, where an operation was necessary to remove what was left of his thumb.

CUCAMONGA MAY HAVE MIRACLE MAN

Many Cures Reported Among Mexicans at Cucamonga Thru Brother Peter

Brother Peter, "Miracle Man," may come to Cucamonga this week from San Bernardino, where he has been healing the sick, the blind and the halt.

Reports are to the effect that he was to leave San Bernardino and over at Cucamonga it is stated that the residents of the Mexican settlement there are endeavoring to persuade the healer to come to Cucamonga.

For several days residents of the Mexican quarter there have been journeying to San Bernardino and it is reported that a Mrs. Lopez, who was carried to the healer on a stretcher, was able to walk from an automobile into her home on her return. One or two other remarkable cures are reported among them that of a child that had been unable to stand or walk, but is making such rapid strides toward good health that friends and neighbors believe that the "miracle man" will cure the child if the treatments are continued.

Another report from Cucamonga is to the effect that a prominent man there whose eyesight has been failing for some months, is taking treatments and is already improving.

TAKE CASH NOT CHECKS TO COSTA RICA

Fictitious check artists, steer clear of Central America!

It is no place to operate, at least that section in the immediate neighborhood of Boca Tres Amigos, Valle San Carlos, Costa Rica.

This warning is contained in an appeal to the state board of education from James E. Reynolds, former county superintendent of schools of Ventura county, who lives in the Valle San Carlos, and says that it is too hard to cash even a perfectly good, bona fide state government check.

To cash his check for retirement salary all he has to do is to give it to a peon to take down the San Carlos river, who gives it to another peon who lives there to give to a boatman when he goes to Fort San Carlos on Lake Nicaragua, who in turn gives it to the storekeeper there who sends it across the lake to the nearest bank at Granada. After a month or two Reynolds sometimes hears from the bank, he says.

He asked the board of education to send him his salary in cash, but the state law provides that it be paid by check. Reynolds has been notified that he will have to start his own bank.

HAD APPEARANCE BUT LACKED TICKET

"Lost 'em" But Friends Found Them in His Room. Tele- graph Saves Reputation

This is a story of how T. M. Nichols, Santa Fe agent, proved himself a hero and brings out the moral that if you are going to travel on the Santa Fe railroad, a ticket and money are absolutely necessary.

Dr. O. W. Kankel was bidding friends good-bye Tuesday morning, stating that he was going to Minnesota for a few weeks. His friends congratulated him on his appearance and stated in plain terms that they were delighted to have him represent the City of Upland in the State of Minnesota. One friend warned him, "You look so fine in that new suit of clothes, I want to warn you against the fairer sex, for you might get vamped before you get home again."

"Not me," said the doctor, "it can't be done."

His friends wished him a fine trip, a good time and a safe return home again and he boarded the fastest train on the Santa Fe for Kansas City.

Hardly had the train reached Rialto when Agent Nichols noted a peculiar buzzing on the telephone wire, which was most unusual, but the message proved unusual. "Find my ticket, also my money—Lost 'em—Kankel."

Stop for the moment dear reader, and imagine if you can, our fellow townsman entering one of Mr. Pullman's best with Mr. Porter carrying his grips; fellow travelers glancing up and remarking, "Some Man, wonder what diplomat we have with us."

And imagine, dear reader, the conductor and the auditor and all the other dignitaries of the Santa Fe's fastest train, approaching our citizen and gently stating, "Your ticket, please."

And imagine our dear friend confidently reaching into the innermost confines of that new suit of clothes and finding—NOTHING.

Would that we might have been there to have exclaimed, "OH! DOCTOR!"

Hardly had the telephone instrument ceased its peculiar buzzing when Santa Fe Agent Nichols rushed up the street. After searching here and there and everywhere friends broke into the doctor's apartment and there in hold relief in the middle of the floor lay the much needed ticket.

Rushing to the telephone office Mr. Nichols instructed the agent at Barstow to deliver to Dr. O. W. Kankel, aboard the Santa Fe's fastest train, one perfectly good ticket that would not only take him there, but bring him back again, while friends are writing him today stating, "If you need anything, telegraph, but get a safety pin and pin your ticket and your money to your shirt."

AUTO CLUB TO HAVE BRANCH POST AT NEEDLES

Needles may have a branch office of the Automobile Club of Southern California to register automobile tourists and to direct them to the best roads of the state as they cross the state line, Fred A. Davey, district manager of the club announced recently.

Plans are being made by the club to start the branch office in Redlands as soon as possible. The date of the opening of the branches have not been announced but Mr. Davey hopes to have them started as soon as possible.

The constant stream of visiting automobiles coming into California should be greeted by the club representatives, allowed to make application for the visiting licenses and receive their seven-day permits.

If such an office were established, the visiting tourists would not be required to rush to Los Angeles for the visiting licenses but the club could issue the seven-day permits and have the regular visiting license, which is good for three months, mailed to the tourist at any place he designates.

Police authorities here have seen the need of the accommodation to the tourists as they come into the state. Motorists frequently go to the police station here for the visiting licenses but must be sent to Los Angeles to the branch office of the Motor Vehicle Department.

San Bernardino Valley would be greatly benefited by the branch office in Needles, it is said, for a large number of the tourists could stop in the valley and possibly find a permanent stopping place here. As it is now the tourists go to Los Angeles as soon as possible to obtain their visiting license and seldom return.

RED HILL COUNTRY CLUB UNDER WAY

Articles of Incorporation Here And Active Construction Starts at Red Hill

With the arrival Wednesday from Sacramento of articles of incorporation, actual work on the improvement of the site of Red Hill Country Club, to the east of Upland, was commenced.

While a fine golf course is to be one of the features of the club, it is to be in no sense of the word a golf club alone. Grading was commenced today preparatory to building tennis courts, laying out a children's playground and putting in croquet courts.

Estimates are already being received on the proposed open-air swimming pool, which promises to be one of the most attractive plunges of its kind in this part of the state.

Glenn D. Smith, president of the club, has been authorized to name a committee to take charge of the work of fitting up the spacious basement of the Sycamore hotel, adjoining the club land, for use as temporary club quarters. There will be locker rooms, showers and the like and use of the social rooms and verandas of the hotel will be free to club members.

Work of fitting up the basement is expected to commence next week. Charter membership in the club was limited to 200, but it is understood that it is planned to permit the receipt of an additional hundred members a little later, the limit having been fixed definitely at 300 members.

Failure of the articles of incorporation to arrive until Wednesday, delayed the sending of notices to members informing them that first payments on their stock certificates were due, but they have now been mailed.

Laying out of the golf course is to be under the direction of George N. Thomas, Jr., one of the most expert golf architects in the United States.

GEO. N. HAMILTON TO WASHINGTON D.C.

To Represent Lemon Growers Before Senate Finance Committee on By-products

George N. Hamilton left Thursday morning for Washington, D. C. where he will represent the lemon growers at a hearing before the Senate finance committee when the citrus by-products schedule of the Fordney Tariff bill comes up for consideration. A telegram was received Wednesday afternoon from Congressman Walter F. Lineberger asking Mr. Hamilton to come at the earliest possible date in order to confer with Senator Johnson and other Republican leaders on the tariff question.

Mr. Hamilton will arrive in Washington on Monday and will begin his activities in behalf of a higher tariff rate on citrus by-products at once. Congressman Lineberger's telegram follows:

Washington, D. C.

Senator Johnson suggests you come earliest date possible in order to talk over rates and reach agreement with reference to presenting matter before committee so that all will be harmonious in their request when matter is taken up. Let me know if we can look for you on Monday.

MRS. WALLACE SINGS TO DELIGHT OF ALL

As "Joy Nights" go in the city of Upland, last night's was a rare one for not only the weather but the entertainment as well, made the evening complete in every detail.

Mr. R. B. Wallace who sang "Because" by D'Hardelot with the band accompanying, sang to the delight of her hearers. Her voice could be heard most distinctly and its carrying qualities combined with the exactness of her notes and the excellence of her tones, resulted in rounds of applause demanding that she sing an encore. Mrs. Wallace responded most graciously and her hearers were more than pleased.

The selections by the band under the direction of Director Wilding were heartily enjoyed and the audience went home well pleased with the entire program. This morning Director Wilding, Mrs. Wilding and son Bill went to the beach with extensive plans of catching big fish. Here's to their good luck.

At the Colonial, Charlie Chaplin and Jackie Coogan drew the third big crowd last night to witness their famous production, "The Kid." The entire program at the Colonial has been receiving hearty approval and for the three-night run the Colonial broke all records.

Ice Cream Too.

Confectioners did a record business last night, while the dance at Rudy Hall following the band concert entertained a large crowd.

DOUGLAS M'LEAN IN "ONE A MINUTE"

The Colonial theatre offers a wonderful program for tonight and tomorrow with Douglas MacLean as star, in "One A Minute." It is highly amusing, and deals with a village druggist who fights a drug trust with its own weapons, and wins out, after some funny situations.

Could the modern girl "Get Away" with the fashions of her mother's girlhood? How old should a girl be before she gets engaged? These and other interesting questions revolve around the plot of "Don't Call Me Little Girl" which the Colonial theatre offers for its Sunday program, the part of Jerry, a mad-captain-boy being taken by Mary Miles Minter.

There are some clever comedies too, scheduled for the next few nights, and on Monday that wonderful Paramount picture "The Bronze Bell" will be shown.

CLUB WOMEN PLEASED WITH SUCCESS OF CANDY SALE

The new club house that the Upland Woman's Club are raising money to build will soon be a reality, if the success of last night's candy and pop corn selling be repeated every band concert evening.

Girls of the Service club with tempting baskets of home made candy, had to have them filled time and again from the supply made by the club women for the event, and when the last was sold there were still inquiries for more. The club women are very pleased with the result of their sale, and plan another for next Thursday evening. Their confectioes then will be ice cream sandwiches, and more home made candy, and the Service girls club will act as saleswomen again.

NATURAL ERROR

Reville had been wounded and Private Pence came running out with his leggings on wrong. He jumped into the ranks and snapped into attention, but not until after the top kick had noticed his lapse from military sartorial perfection.

"Private Pence," he demanded angrily, "why have you your leggings on wrong?"

"It was just a personal mistake," answered the offender.

"Mistake?"

"Yes, I had my legs crossed when I put them on"—American Legion Weekly.

DESERVED DEATH

"What's become of the old-fashioned dramatic critic who used to write about an 'Uncle Tom's Cabin show and compliment the dogs?'"

"I've located his successor in a little Western town."

"Well?"

"In reviewing 'Hamlet,' as presented in the local theatre, he said the large number of fatalities at the end of the play reconciled the audience to the performance." — Birmingham Age-Herald.

GIFT BOOK DAY AT UPLAND LIBRARY

Are Your Books All Busy? Eighth Anniversary to be Held on August 11th

Following the establishment of a Book Gift Day on the anniversary of the opening of the Upland Public Library, the library staff will be glad to receive any book that is not busy in your home. Possibly a book has been loaned to a friend and you are hesitant about asking to have it returned. This is a good time to notify your borrower that you really would like to have it come home as you would like to make a gift of it to the library so that more people might get the benefit of the book.

On Thursday, the 11th of August, the day of the Band Concert, the library will keep open house from 2 o'clock continuously until after band concert in the evening, to give everyone the opportunity of visiting the building.

For eight years the library has been open to the public. Between 1200 and 1500 books were on its shelves, part of them from the old library and many the gifts of friends. Five hundred books a year have been added since, and with twenty-five hundred from the County Free Library, makes a fair collection for the city.

We have outgrown the main floor and must make provision for more floor space within the next two years. To relieve the congestion, it is hoped to put shelves across about one-third of the floor space in the basement, for the children's department, making of that department an up-to-date children's library, such as they have in other libraries. Using this part of the basement will in no way interfere with the use of the basement as a civic center or Club center, as it is now being used.

The members of the library board, E. C. Harwood, president, M. E. Hill, Chas. Rudy, Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge and Mrs. Edith S. Troeller, will hold a meeting at 3 o'clock on the same day at the library.

Your book need not be the latest thing in fiction. It might be a history, or a book of poetry, or collection of poetry and readings, a set of books to be used in the reference department, a child's book, why most anything. If you have no gift come in anyway! The friends of the library are always welcome.

FARM BUREAU DRIVE FOR UTILITY FUNDS

Campaign to raise San Bernardino County's quota of the fund for operations of the utilities department of the State Farm Bureau will begin Monday under the general direction of M. A. Kipf, executive secretary of the Farm Bureau. The first district canvassed will be Chino and other centers of the county will follow in this order: Upland, Cucamonga, Alta Loma, Fontana, Rialto, San Bernardino, Del Rosa, Highland, Redlands, Yucaipa.

In each section Mr. Kipf will be assisted by two representatives of the Farm Center. All farmers who are power users will be asked to donate 50 cents per horsepower of electricity used, and it is expected this amount will bring the quota. The fund will be kept in the county and will be used to employ expert investigators to determine the cause of excessive power rates and the possibilities of their reduction and investigate any unsatisfactory conditions.

Plans were made at a recent meeting of the utilities department of the County Farm Bureau to conduct the financial campaign, placing San Bernardino on a par with other counties and aiding in the work of the state organization.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 1921

WHEN Henry Ford asked the Ohio Public Utilities Commission to reduce freight rates 20 per cent on his recently acquired Ohio railroad, he made himself about as popular as a snake with the other railroad executives of the country.

They were smart enough to foresee that the public would ask the very pertinent question: "If Henry Ford can do it why can't you do it?"

That question is now rolling up from all sections of the country, particularly from the farmers, who, as a class, have been hardest hit by the extortionate rates.

That the farmers are not going to confine themselves to asking questions is indicated by the action of the National Board of Farm Organizations. This body, which represents two million farmers, has started a drive on Washington to compel all the railroads to follow Ford's example.

THE United States Chamber of Commerce has undertaken the job of arousing the public and the government to the danger involved in depleting our forests without making proper provision for scientific reforestation.

The fundamentals of the forestry proposition are that in the past 70 years we have exhausted about three-quarters of our forests and are now depleting the quarter that is left four and a half times as fast as it is being restored.

At the present rate of depletion lumber will be one of the luxuries for the next generation.

The only thing that can save the situation is an aroused public sentiment that will force federal and state governments to give to this subject the immediate and continuing attention that its importance deserves.

IT is extremely doubtful that Postmaster General Hays has the public sized up correctly when he suggests that the public would rather pay 25 cents than 10 cents for special delivery letters, in order to get the better service that would be given at the higher price. Twenty-five cents would be a good deal for the ordinary citizen to pay for the delivery of a letter at any time. It looks especially prohibitive just now, when money is lacking for luxuries of any kind. There is a general feeling that 10 cents extra is about enough to pay for what ever special acceleration is possible in the forwarding of a letter. At best, that acceleration seldom amounts to much, in practice.

A 25-cent rate would probably result in a big decrease in the use made of the special delivery. Most people would revert to the regular two-cent postage, and for particularly urgent communications would resort to the telegraph. Riverside Press.

CALIFORNIA POTATO SITUATION

Last Thursday was designated "Potato Day" in a proclamation previously issued by Governor Stephens. It is requested by the governor that potatoes be made a special diet on that day as an encouragement for the consumption of potatoes, which have overrun the market and are threatening alarming losses to their California growers.

In Southern California, however, the potato growing business is not one of great importance. The important potato district of the state is along the Sacramento river, where conditions for their growth are ideal. A large number are also produced in the San Joaquin valley. But in Southern California, various other kinds of crops prove more profitable and potato production is limited largely to Japanese growers. In many parts of Southern California, too, potatoes are subject to diseases which reduce their value and limit their production. However, the latter can be overcome by proper treatment of the soil and often the potatoes used for seed. But in view of the fact that other crops here are more valuable, as a rule, the potato industry will probably never be of much importance in this end of the state.

FRANCE BULWARK OF EUROPE

Country Stands Alone Against a Still Menacing Germany, According to Writer in Outlook.

I wish I could write cheerfully of Europe. I have spent nearly three months digging under the surface 16 hours a day in England, France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Austria and Hungary, uncovering the cost of living, wages, taxes, governmental expenditures, incomes, debts and gold reserves; and I have noted the agricultural equipment and activity, the political sanity and otherwise, the honesty of peoples and their intelligence. And I am coming home to America with a heavy heart.

I criticize every country in Europe, as I do my own beloved land. I excuse only France, W. C. Gregg writes in the Outlook.

From the first gun in 1914 to the present moment France has been the object of attack by the central powers. Anti-French intrigue is as active today as ever. Each move, each hope of the central powers hangs on crippling France. France bears the brunt of guaranteeing European order, and is recompensed by a world of suspicion or hatred. She does not deserve criticism from her former associates; she does need their advice and their firm support in her plan to settle the war.

What would happen if France were to economize by disbanding the bulk of her army? Germany would change her tone immediately. Not one mark more would she pay and her own army would rapidly take form. In one year she would again be the principal military power of Europe, with greater resources than any two other nations. There would then be no doubt as to who won the war.

DELAYED BIG SHIP'S SAILING

Liner Aquitania Stayed at Her Dock Until Lost Youngster Had Been Discovered.

Her whistle had groaned several warnings and the great call song had been sounded up and down the companionway to drive several hundred persons ashore. The gangplank of the Aquitania was about to be drawn upon the pier as a woman rushed up it crying:

"My baby! I've lost my baby!"
Pier guards elicited from her that she had gone on board the ship with her child to say good-by to relatives and when she went back on the pier she thought the lost had toddled down the gangplank after her. The child had been swallowed in the excitement on the ship's deck, however.

A search for the missing child was instituted while the liner was held. Mother and volunteer searchers went from deck to deck. Up on the liner's bridge Capt. Sir James Charles paced back and forth impatiently.

Fifteen minutes elapsed. The sob of a small choked voice was heard in a stateroom. There one of the volunteer stewardesses, an English nurse, was endeavoring to comfort a little slip of a girl who was too frightened to speak. The mother was called and she picked up the child and hurried to the pier. Then the giant liner sailed away.—New York World.

Mistaken Identity.
A certain prominent engineer of Indianapolis decided to replenish his wardrobe, so he walked into a leading clothing store, approached a smiling gentleman in shirt-sleeves and inquired of him: "Where are your collars?" The smiling gentleman ceased smiling, and pointing in the general direction of his neck, said: "Mine's here; where's yours?"

First gentleman grows angry and yells: "Now don't you give me any smart talk. I came in here to buy a collar, and if you get smart I'll go some place else."
The second gentleman, also angry, replies: "Go ahead, I don't care, I came in here to buy something; I am not a clerk." First gentleman: "Thought you were a clerk, you look like one."

Fire Detector.

There has recently been introduced a compact fire detector which may be installed anywhere in conjunction with a simple electric bell and a few dry cells. The device is a highly sensitive automatic fire detector which quickly acts when the temperature rises above the ordinary. It is adjustable, can be tested, is so simple that it cannot get out of order, and can be installed by anyone. The detector may be installed in the cellar of the private house, the attic, the kitchen and elsewhere, either in single or multiple arrangement, so as to give warning of fire at the moment such fire breaks out. Again, it may be installed in the office, shop, factory or store.—Scientific American.

Sun's Rays and Tuberculosis.
Dr. A. Rollier, the great exponent of the sun cure for tuberculosis, explains in the Lancet (London) why sunlight effects a cure, not only in tuberculosis but of suppurating wounds, anaemia, rickets and other affections. It is because the light is highly poisonous to bacteria in general and to those of tuberculosis in particular, while it is not only harmless but actually beneficial to the cells of the higher animals.

Sunlight seems to hurry up the disintegration of cells damaged beyond repair and at the same time to stimulate the activity of undamaged cells. And it is not the ultra-violet rays but the luminous rays that are so beneficial.

MR. AND MRS. MATHER HOME FROM NORTHERN MOTOR TRIP—

Three hundred and forty seven miles for the first day's run towards home after a glorious holiday. How is that for good time? Of course the roads were good, or even the trusty Ford couldn't have done it.

That is the record of the journey south taken last Monday by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mather and family, when they started for Upland after spending several weeks at Chico, Butte County, the guests of Mrs. Mather's parents.

The return trip was made over the inland route, 51 miles of good paved road, save for one little mile that hardly counted, and Mr. Mather speaks very highly of the condition of the route they travelled over. About fifty miles will need repairing soon, it already showing signs of decay, but it is all right so far. They made no detours, and enjoyed every bit of the drive.

On the Ridge they met Charles J. Booth and wife, who with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wetshesbee of Ontario, left here early this week for a motor trip into the Sequoia National Park, Greetings were exchanged, and Mr. and Mrs. Mather travelled on to Pasadena where they spent a short time with Mr. Mather's father, arriving at Upland the next day, while the Dean of Chaffey Junior College and his party motored on into the heart of the forest for their season of rest.

Mr. Mather has a number of interesting details about that portion of the state he has just travelled. Chico, though not the capital is the largest city in Butte County, and is called the Rose City, on account of the many beautiful blossoms of the queen of flowers. It is only five miles from the Sacramento river, a tributary of which flows right thru discovered several "swimmin' holes" which he sampled from time to time, and proclaimed them good.

SOCIETY—

AFTERNOON BRIDGE PARTY BY MRS. S. B. ROWE—

A bridge tea was given last Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Sam B. Rowe to members of her bridge club, and several guests, the affair taking place at The Sycamores.

LADIES AID HAVE SOCIAL EVENING AT FULLER HOME—

Last Tuesday afternoon members of the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid Society spent the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kent W. Fuller on San Antonio Heights, sewing for the benefit of the society. At six o'clock the men folk of every woman present arrived, and were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, who were prepared for them with a bountiful supper.

Lovely flowers made the living rooms very attractive, and after the hospitable meal, Mrs. H. W. Hawkins took charge of the evening's fun, providing every one with a slip of paper on which was written a "stunt" for each to perform, no excuse being taken for the non-fulfillment. A dressing contest, in which the guests had to put on clothes given them in a valise, and get ready for a journey, go outside the house, return, take off clothes and pack them in the valise again, caused very much laughter, and added to the merriment of the evening.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Nisbet; Mrs. Nisbet's mother, Mrs. MacHenry, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Norton, Mary and Louise Norton, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Pehl, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hawkins and son William, Mrs. Amy Frost and four daughters; Mrs. Thomas W. Harris, Mrs. C. E. Tyler, Mrs. Charlotte Knight, Mrs. Beas Jones, J. F. Horsley and Mr. and Mrs. Fuller with their two sons.

E. P. FULLER TELLS OF TRIP TO SEATTLE—

To one contemplating a motor trip north a few notes about my trip as far north at Seattle may be of interest.

The first question asked by the motorist is, "How are the roads?"

We had a good hard road from here to the Oregon line, with the exception of the road from Red Bluff to Redding, here we had a 30-minute detour. Part of it was thru the dry bed of a river, which was quite good, but near Cottonwood we pulled thru dust to the hub, the road was pretty rough from there to Redding.

They are now paving the highway between these cities.

From the California-Oregon line we had a fine paved road to Junction City a distance of 175 miles.

The paved roads over the mountains in Oregon could be no better.

From Junction City to Salem the roads were pretty rough.

They seemed to like rocks and coarse gravel for roads and for filling in chuck holes which plays havoc with one's tires.

Here we had a great deal of detouring, as they were either building or repairing the roads most of the way.

The road is mostly paved from Salem to Portland, from Portland to Tacoma was partly paved. Some we found very rough, especially the detours. From Tacoma to Seattle there is a fine paved road.

The auto camps were one of the most interesting features of the trip. Almost every town and city has one and some have two. They believe in advertising their camps. One auto sign read "Free auto camp at 40 miles from here." Another "Free auto tourist camp at 20 miles from here."

Most of them are well equipped having water, electric lights, gas or stoves. Shower baths, places to do laundry. One had telephones and furnished writing materials.

The camps in northern California Oregon and Washington were well supplied with wood, in many places cut ready for the stoves.

These camps are provided by the Chamber of Commerce, most of them have a man in charge, who asks you to register, giving home town, destination, kind of car and license number.

We found two camps where an admission fee of 50 cents was charged.

Many autoists are taking advantage of these splendid camping opportunities.

If one did not get in as early as 6 or 7 p. m. it was impossible to get suitable location.

The least number of cars we were with in any one camp were five and that was at Castle Rock, Wash.

The night we were in Salem, Oregon, there were over 300.

Autoists on the camp ground and the man in charge said they often had as many as 500.

The camps at Sacramento and at Fresno were crowded to their full capacity.

Ashland, Oregon, had the prettiest spot of any city we saw for its camp. We arrived there about 3 p. m. thinking we would camp early and rest, but it was so crowded that we reluctantly drove on another 50 miles and camped at Yreka, California.

We saw a notice of their camp 17 miles from the town. They have a fine place, good water and plenty of shade.

Another interesting and delightful part of the trip was seeing the varied farm and orchard products as we passed thru the different counties.

First we had the oranges, lemons and walnuts. In Kern County they were gathering and shipping water melons and cantaloupes, also picking and packing grapes.

Tulare county there were large dairy and stock farms. In Fresno county we passed thru acres and acres of fine vineyards and near Fresno we drove thru a 15,000 acre fig orchard.

As we neared Sacramento it was big wheatfields, hay and rice. Farther north were apples, peaches and sprouts, also immense hay fields.

In Southern Oregon we passed thru apple, pear and peach orchards. Around Salem were large hop fields.

In Washington we drove for miles with great fields of raspberries on either side of the road. They were ripening and men, women and children were picking them. And such cherries as Washington has! Big, black and red ones, only 15c a lb.

We spent little time in the cities as the country was much more attractive to us. We spent one day in Victoria, B. C. crossing Puget Sound on the boat "Victoria".

Were 3 days in Seattle and stopped long enough in Olympia, Salem and Sacramento to visit the state capital buildings. In Olympia they are building a fine new one.

Mrs. Lassen, Shasta, Hood and Rainier with their white caps of snow and the many beautiful rivers and streams we crossed added materially to the beauty of the scenery.

We travelled 2822 miles, used 178 gallons of gasoline, 7 gallons of oil. We paid from 25c to 33c a gallon for gasoline and from 30 to 45c a quart for oil.

We met all kinds of automobiles and all kinds of drivers and they had come over all kinds of roads.

We saw cars from New York, Ill., Minn., Penn., Tex., Mont., W. Va., Mo., and all the near states east of here.

I wish I could describe to you the beauties and opportunities for a good living and a good time on a 40-acre ranch near Canyonville, Oregon, where we spent 3 days visiting a niece whom I had not seen for over 35 years.

She is a sister to Mrs. A. P. Moreman, Mrs. Beas Moser and Mr. Joe Minor all of Upland.

This ranch is entirely surrounded by mountains and covered with big pine trees. Canyon Creek runs thru it, near the home. The water is cold, clear and deep and is well stocked with trout and salmon.

One does not need to be a sportsman to kill a deer. They are plentiful and come down to drink at the creek with the cattle.

There is plenty of small game. I would like to have stayed the rest of the summer but I was afraid some one might miss The Times, so I came home.

The expense of the trip was not great, but the trip was great.

On their return they will make their home on West Street, Upland.

GAME COMMISSION GIVES RULES FOR DEER HUNTERS

William C. Malone, fish and game commissioner of San Bernardino County has recently received instructions from the California Fish and Game Commission regarding the transportation of killed deer from one district to another.

Southern refuges being both large and numerous, often extending across trails reaching the back-country, and the heat which is experienced necessitating unusual care to bring out venison without loss, a special arrangement has been made to go as far in behalf of the law-abiding hunting licensee as the statutes admit.

Under a law passed, the hunter lawfully killing a deer in an "open" district may transport his venison to any part of the state by swearing out an affidavit in triplicate, stating certain essential facts concerning the killing, which are embodied in the blank form for such statements.

These must be sworn to before a justice of the peace, notary public or made before forest rangers or assistants of the fish and game commission. One copy must be attached to the carcass before it leaves the district where lawfully killed, one copy is mailed to the fish and game commission and one left with the officer.

The new form of deer transportation affidavit also serves as a permit to possess a rifle accompanying a carcass of venison. The issuance and use of such affidavit permit is thereby automatically limited to the open season, plus the five days thereafter during which possession of legally killed game is permissible. Firearms so possessed must be encased or packed. Their use within the game refuges or carrying ready for use will nullify the permit and expose the violator of the privilege to prosecution.

The new forms will be in the hands of deputies of the fish and game commission and forest rangers who will be glad to issue them.

MOTOR HINTS

There is nothing much more mysterious or baffling than a tire which gradually loses its air, though it is positively known that the tube does not leak and that the valve is in good shape. But there is always a reason for such things, and one reason for loss of air may be that the pin in the valve is a trifle too long, so that when the cap is screwed on it makes contact with the pin and pushes the valve off its seat. Filling a little off the end of the pin is all that is necessary to end the loss of air.

The soda fountain is as good a place to start a reduction of prices as anywhere else. All Ice Cream Sodas have been reduced to 10c. War tax 1c, Total 11c. This is our own individual effort to reduce prices. Many high fruit products and fountain requirements have not come down in cost at all, yet we have lowered the price of everything sold at the fountain.

There was positively no cheapening in price—there was no reduction in size—but six cents is saved on every one of them.

A nice time now to get acquainted with this up-to-date fountain and learn the constant joy it is able to dispense to you. A couple of good drinks bought and paid for, saves the price of another.

MILLIONS OF CANTS. FOR EVERYONE

Out of the Imperial Valley alone enough cantaloupes have been shipped over Southern Pacific Company lines to allow one melon to each person in the entire United States and still have millions distributed for a second helping.

Up to July 15, a total of 16,500 carloads of cantaloupes had been shipped to Eastern markets. This means 156,000,000 melons—330 crates to a car and 45 cantaloupes to a crate.

Last year up to July 15, there had been shipped 8900 cars of cantaloupes, or 132,165,000 melons out of the Imperial Valley.

This year's immense crops were shipped in approximately 200 train loads, 50 cars to a train, which if placed one behind the other would extend for a distance of 100 miles. Picking and packing the crop was done in approximately 500 hours, the 156,000,000 cantaloupes requiring two individual handlings—first the picking, then the packing.

According to the railroad officials, 250 more cars of 3,712,500 melons, bringing the total number of cars to 10,750 will have been moved out of Imperial Valley before the end of the season.

ETIWANDA

The great event of this week was the all-day picnic Tuesday at Fairmont Park. At an early hour in the morning there were already several automobile loads of Etiwanda people wandering about and all day they came and went; the main crowd having their noon meal at the park but many coming in the afternoon and remaining for the evening. Not many who remained for both dinner and supper showed a great deal of interest in the second meal. A committee from the Sunday school got a quantity of ice and everyone who wished had lemonade or iced tea. Everyone who was too big to be entertained by a toy balloon went into the plunge in the afternoon and a good many are nursing sun burns the rest of this week. A Sunday school picnic from Banning on the same day brought the C. A. Cathran family who greeted old Etiwanda friends. Rev. and Mrs. Giles Ellis and daughter of Blomington joined the Etiwanda crowd in the evening and many met the new Mrs. Ellis for the first time, finding her a very charming woman. Mrs. O. H. Price, entertained her niece, Miss Davis, of Colton during the day and Miss Ruby Dugdale and Miss Irene Scott brought their Chaffey chums with them. No accident of even a minor nature marred the happiness of the 1921 picnic.

The pupils who have been taking piano lessons from Miss Isabel Smith, gave a recital Friday afternoon to their mothers and a few invited guests. Each of the girls played four numbers, all of them doing very nicely for the length of time they have been taking lessons. The hostess served punch and cake. There were present: Mesdames C. Brownless, O. H. Price, Clara Tilden and A. C. Smith; pupils, Marian Brownless, Kathleen Price and Edna and Pauline Tilden; visitors, Dorothy Cour, Ethel Stevens, Evelyn and Irene Geidner, Gladys Bacon, Mercedes Frost, Miriam Price and Dorothy Smith.

The boys who constitute Mrs. C. W. Greenlee's Sunday School Class had a picnic Friday near Long Beach where a number of the boys were attending the convention. All of the boys of the class were present except Alexander Allen who was away with relatives and could not go. The dinner was provided by the boys who were losers in a recent contest the class has held. The machine driven by Clarence Hazzard happened to be filled with boys none of whom knew the road well and they got lost and spent six hours getting home after dark. Those who attended were: Ralph Price, Wesley Cole, Donald Mueller, Elmer Mueller, Curtis Smith, Clarence Hazzard, Omar Ross, Alfred Phillips, Ned Francis, Sylvanus Kemp, Berthold Dugdale, Morris Frost, Gerald Cour, Frank Cour and Clyde Greenlee. Rev. and Mrs. Greenlee were also in the party.

Mrs. F. L. Geidner entertained eleven little girls Saturday afternoon in honor of the birthday of her daughter Evelyn who was eleven years of age on that date. After a lively lot of games Mrs. Geidner served ice cream and cake and the girls say it was one of the nicest parties they have ever attended.

Mr. J. C. Jones went over to Chaffey Thursday evening to be present at the tryout of the new pipe organ. Mr. Jones is spending this week at the Beach, Mr. Roland Jones having returned to look after business here.

Mr. C. C. Brownless returned Friday from El Centro bringing Carlton with him. When he goes to El Cajon the last of this week the family will accompany him to remain while his business keeps him there. Miss Ruth Brownless will spend a month at Coronado Beach with friends.

Mr. Ralph Price has an unusually severe case of sun burn as a memento of his trip to Long Beach last week and has spent this week in bed.

Miss Emily Geidner who is recovering from an operation for appendicitis has spent the past week in bed but is getting about again.

Billy Hippard leaves in a few days for Berkeley where he will attend the University as a sophomore. His friend, Carleton Ross, of Hollywood who is a frequent guest here will go also.

Miss Katherine Jones has been in Spain long enough that her letters are now reaching here from Madrid. She has planned her work so that she has part of each day for sight seeing.

The revival services which are being held in a tent on the school ground are being continued this week.

Rev. C. W. Greenlee has purchased a home site at Alamato Bay. It is not an ocean front lot but is very close to the beach and will make an excellent headquarters for summer outings. Rev. Greenlee, who has a vacation this month has gone down to arrange a place for the family to go for their vacation this year. Eventually, he plans to erect a good house on the property.

For the month of August the Endeavorers will probably meet at the church hour, immediately following Sunday school in the morning, and their meetings will end the days services. On next Sunday morning the young people who attended the Long Beach convention last week will hold an echo meeting. Mr. Frank Cour is in charge of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Kemp and family have returned from two weeks at Long Beach.

Mrs. Eva R. Fisher and daughter Joy plan to move to either Upland or Ontario before the beginning of the school year as Miss Joy enters Chaffey.

Mrs. W. E. Layton and daughter returned from their camping trip Sunday. Ethel gained a pound a day while she was away.

Miss Roberta Henderson came home Sunday from Los Angeles and spent the day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson. She is spending her vacation in Bullock's store where she has very pleasant work. She will return in time to enter Chaffey this fall.

Bruce Rader leaves for Hollywood the last of this week after a month with the John Scott family. He will be with his aunt, Miss Gertrude Spears until his mother reaches here from Alaska. If Mrs. Rader left when she had expected to she started on her way South Tuesday. Mr. Rader will remain until November at the Matanuska Station which is in his charge.

Comrades H. L. Tilden and E. G. Rader are spending a few days in Santa Monica Canyon with the Annual G. A. R. encampment. Mr. Tilden has never missed a G. A. R. Encampment since he has been in the State.

Mrs. A. A. Werner spent part of the past week in bed suffering from stomach trouble.

Mrs. Theodore Suhr is making a visit in Redlands with her daughter, Mrs. Lewis, making the acquaintance of a new grandchild.

Mr. S. W. Gebhart of Oakland spent Monday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. T. Myers. Mr. Gebhart, who used to be almost a weekly visitor here when, as traveling salesman he came through here regularly, has not been here on a visit for several months.

However, on Friday, Mr. Dana was so much better that Mr. English returned home. On Sunday Mrs. English also returned home and at the present writing Mr. Dana is able to be up and around and is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Traivagilla and the children spent Sunday with their Brother, Mr. Joe Virgio and family.

GOT THE BEST OF HIM

As Harry, who is six years old, came in the back door, he was saying to himself: "Well, I got the best of him that time."

His mother happened to be in the kitchen. "Harry, have you and the neighbor boy been fighting again?" she asked.

Harry was quick to reply: "Not this time. You know when he was over here last week, we made a kite, and you made me let him take it home with him. Yesterday we made a birdhouse, and he had to take it home. So today we dug holes, and he didn't take them home with him."—Indianapolis News.

FUMIGATION FACTS

Here is Something of Vital Interest to Every Citrus Fruit Grower

Our County Horticultural Inspectors estimate that about 9000 acres of citrus groves must be fumigated this year.

The five outfits working in this district will be able to fumigate 5000 to 6000 acres, depending somewhat on the weather conditions this winter.

This leaves 3000 to 4000 acres that may not be fumigated this year and which will remain as sources of re-infection of the fumigated groves.

Unless you have made arrangements for fumigation your groves will remain black and will have a short crop next year.

In view of the above conditions the Cooperative Fumigation and Supply Co., has decided, for a limited period only, to sell a small block of authorized but as yet unsold stock, and then endeavor to purchase supplies, tents and other equipment sufficient to fumigate the groves of all stockholders requesting it this year.

The Cooperative Fumigation and Supply Co., is a non-profit corporation organized to fumigate the groves of its stockholders only, and at cost to stockholders. It has worked successfully in this community for ten years. Its present manager and directors are men well-known in the community. No financial benefit will accrue to the corporation through this increase in stock; instead it means more work and anxiety for its manager and directors. The benefit to every citrus grower of a scale clean district, and the desire to make the corporation of use to the community in this time of emergency, are the sole causes of this offer.

REMEMBER—Stock costs $1.00 per share in cash. Five shares must be purchased for each acre. This offer is open until August 15th, 1921, only. This advertisement appears twice only.

If you are interested in this plan do not delay action.

If you are already a stockholder in the Cooperative Company, let the manager know today if you need fumigation, or you may be left out in the rush.

PREPAREDNESS

A certain clergyman always felt it his duty to give each couple a little serious advice before he performed the marriage ceremony. He usually took them aside one at a time and talked very soberly to each regarding the great importance of the step they were about to take and the new responsibilities they were to assume. One day he talked in his most earnest manner for several minutes to a young woman who had come to be married. "And now," he said, in closing, "I hope you will realize the extreme importance of the step you are taking, and that you are prepared for it."

"Prepared!" replied the bride innocently. "Well, if I ain't prepared, I don't know who is. I've got four common quilts and two nice ones and four brand new feather-beds, ten sheets and twelve pairs of pillow-slips, four linen table-cloths, a dozen spoons and a new six-quart kettle, and lots of other things."—Houston Post.

NEW CLERK OF SUPERVISORS ON DUTY

Fred J. Atkinson, new clerk of the Board of Supervisors, was on duty at the weekly meeting yesterday for the first time. Mr. Atkinson, who has been a deputy in the county clerk's office for many years, was appointed to the new position by County Clerk Harry L. Allison upon the resignation of R. H. Mack, for 10 years clerk of board, to accept the secretaryship of the Chamber of Commerce.

The resignation of Mr. Mack, effective July 15, was accepted by the Supervisors yesterday. In accepting the resignation, the Board passed the following resolution: "The Board of Supervisors in accepting the resignation of Secretary R. H. Mack, wish to express their appreciation of his services extending over a period of ten years, the responsibilities of which he has met with marked ability and a conscientious performance of its varied and numerous duties and we regret that his services as secretary will no longer be available."

The Board also expresses gratification that he has been called to larger sphere of usefulness in which his knowledge and experience will contribute to a highly successful administration in his new position."

BOYS WILL REFOREST STATE

Louisiana Has Started Movement Which It Is to Be Hoped Other States Will Follow.

The state of Louisiana has a plan for reforesting a third of its twelve million acres that have been denuded of trees by the farmer and the lumberman. It has called on the boys to take part in the good work. The department of conservation is now engaged in establishing reforestation clubs and by the end of this year expects to have 25,000 boys enrolled for the work. Five thousand copies of a bulletin have been issued describing the trees best adapted to the lands in various sections of the state. And a state forester, who has been connected with the public schools and who understands the American boy and his ways, has been hired to supervise the whole plan.

A call has been sent out to farmers' sons mainly, though all boys between ten and eighteen are invited to take part in the work. One large lumbering concern, interested because of its business, has offered prizes totaling $500 annually.

Since the demand for southern lumber has become large, the old and vigorous forests of Louisiana have suffered severely and the tendency there, as elsewhere, is to sacrifice second growth in an unscientific and wasteful manner. It is hoped to check this tendency and to replant large portions of the denuded territory.—Minneapolis Journal.

Dinner-Plate Pennies.

Some of the first coins were enormous, the idea apparently being to discourage the greedy from attempting to accumulate and carry around too many of them. There were copper coins as large as dinner plates. This inconvenient style had to give way to the demand for smaller and more convenient forms of currency, and the giant pennies soon dwindled in size to meet the popular demand.

The earliest trace of the use of gold as money is to be found in the pictures of the ancient Egyptians weighing in scales heaps of rings of the precious metals. But there is no actual record that these rings were known as coins with a fixed value.

Embarrassing Moment.

Several years ago I had a fancy white dress that I kept on a coat hanger in my closet, but on close examination I noticed that the hanger was leaving its print on the sleeves. In order to do away with that I planned the dress by the belt to the back of a coat. One evening two friends called and asked me to go with them to the postoffice. As it was cool I put on a coat and had reached the street when my friends simultaneously noticed that I was wearing the coat that had my elaborate white dress fastened to the back of it. My embarrassment was little short of frenzy.—Chicago American.

THINGS THAT COUNT

Not what we have, but what we use. Not what we see, but what we choose.

These are the things that mar or bless. The sum of human happiness.

The things near by, not things afar. Not what we seem, but what we are.

These are the things that make or break. Not what seems fair, but what is true.

Not what we dream, but what we do. These are the things that shine like gems.

Like stars in fortune's diadems. Not as we take, but as we give. Not as we pray, but as we live.

These are the things that make for peace. Both now and after time shall cease.

GETTING EVEN

At one of the players' club they tell this story:

A certain youthful and sarcastic dramatic critic had been particularly severe upon the efforts of an actress whom more than once he had scored unmercifully. In course of time the two met and the actress, with an affectation of humility said:

"Really, Mr. Smith, I think it cruel of you to roast me like that, especially when it is considered that I have three children and a husband who is a dramatic critic to support."

SEEING ONTARIO Through Her Events

Apparently imbued with that old maxim to the effect that "cleanliness stands next to godliness," burglars entered the First Methodist church, Euclid avenue and G street, and looted the edifice of a $40 vacuum cleaner and 46 feet of rubber hose, according to report to the Ontario police yesterday afternoon. As the church is locked for the most part except during services or when the organist is there for practice, it is believed that the thieves gained a quiet entrance under cover, as it were, of the peals of the pipe organ. The vacuum cleaner was kept in a closet and the closet usually locked, but A. Ogan, the janitor, is unable to state positively whether it was locked at the time of the theft or not. The appliance is said to have been taken some time between July 25 and July 30, but Mr. Ogan failed to report the loss to the police until yesterday in the belief that it might have been possible that the cleaner had been borrowed by a church member, but when it continued to be numbered among the missing, he turned the matter over to the authorities.

The demand for houses in Ontario was emphasized yesterday when Mrs. Harriet L. Gray sold to the Rev. D. B. Shepard, Free Methodist minister just here from Orange, a residence which she had only just moved to 622 North Euclid avenue and under which the foundation had not yet been laid. The house formerly occupied the site at the southeast corner Euclid avenue and G street on which the new edifice of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, is shortly to be built. A few weeks ago, Mrs. Gray purchased property adjoining the church with a frontage of 62 feet on Euclid avenue. The 20 feet adjacent she disposed of to the church society, taking the house in trade, and yesterday she disposed of the remainder of her property. The property until recently belonged to the Rev. R. H. Gushee, rector of Christ Episcopal church. He sold it to McGreedy Brothers, who in turn disposed of it to Mrs. Gray. Real estate men report the demand for houses to be particularly brisk with practically nothing at all for rent and few on the market for sale.

Why is the price of ice in Ontario higher than in many neighboring cities? That is the question to which B. W. Spencer, secretary of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce, recently set out to find the answer. He stated today, however, that as yet he has been unable to find a satisfactory solution. Early this summer the local rates were boosted from 70 cents per 100 pounds delivered and 50 cents per hundred at the ice plant to 80 cents delivered and 60 at the plant. The ice people blame the increase to an advance in the price of gas, which they claim has gone up 10 per cent. The gas people on the other hand allege that the raise in the price of their commodity has been only about 5 per cent, but whichever figure is correct, it is thought that the reduced cost of labor, the lower price of gasoline for truck operation and a decrease in the cost of feed for horses should at least serve to keep the price of ice from advancing. It is said also that there has been no advance in the price of chemicals used in the manufacture of ice and that there has been no marked advance in the cost of water. San Bernardino, Riverside and other Southern California cities are said to be getting ice at the old prices of 50 and 70 cents a hundred and Ontarians are anxious to know the reason.

Several hundred dollars worth of damage was done to the stock of the Spencer Dry Goods Company, 110-112 South Euclid avenue, early yesterday when a defective connection in a water pipe in the new Envoys Hotel above, on which plumbers had been working, sprung a leak in the night and flooded store and basement. The flood was discovered at 4 a. m. by Patrolman A. J. Koller of the night police force who notified Miss Velma Spencer of the mercantile establishment and Charles Frankish, proprietor of the building. While the exact amount of the damage has not been checked up, it is thought that it will run in the neighborhood of $500.

Rejoicing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Schaefer, 1108 North Euclid avenue, was abruptly turned to sorrow yesterday when death snatched away their little grandson, Paul, Jr., whose birth, Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Merle Salisbury Schaefer completed a total of four generations in the Schaefer family. Remains of the little one were laid to rest this afternoon in Pomona cemetery with brief services at the grave in charge of the Rev. Walter C. Buckner of Pomona.

Brief word of the death of C. E. White of 130 Granada Court at the Curtis hotel, Minneapolis, Minn., was received here yesterday. Mr. White left Ontario on a stretcher some ten days ago, accompanied by Mrs. White and their daughter, Miss Sibyl White, and a physician to return to his old home in Monticello.

Minn. He was suffering from heart trouble.

Miss Nellie Rollins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Rollins of South Campus avenue, died yesterday in a hospital in San Bernardino at the age of 24. The young woman recently came here with her parents from the east in search of improved health, but too late. The funeral was held today from Draper's chapel and interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Grammar schools of the city were declared in excellent shape as to fire protection yesterday following an inspection tour by a committee numbering John S. Armstrong and Ross P. Garbutt of the board of education, Fire Chief Harry Nelson, Fire Marshal D. L. Westfall and Chief of Police W. O. Hardy. While a few minor additions to the equipment were recommended, it was declared for the most part in good shape.

Miss Gladys Gardner, whose marriage to Wayne Glover of Los Angeles is to be an event of August 11, was the guest of honor Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Martin Stewart entertained with a miscellaneous shower at her home, 326 West F Street. More than a score of women enjoyed the event.

The promptness with which young America takes advantage of its opportunities was aptly illustrated on Tuesday night when a southbound Pacific Electric car on the Euclid avenue line dumped a ton or two of peaches on the street in a collision with a truck trailer at the Emporia avenue intersection and small boys rapidly gathered the scattered fruit into paper sacks and sold it among the crowd attending a concert by the Ontario Municipal Band in City Hall Park. The truck, driven by Ray Palmer of Pomona, who was accompanied by Ray Anderson of the same place, was proceeding west on Emporia. The truck had crossed the tracks, but the trailer behind was scarcely half over when the trolley car, in charge of M. R. Riggs, rounded the curve at the fountain just north of the intersection. Riggs is said to have seen the truck cross the tracks, but did not see the trailer until too late to avoid collision. Large quantities of luscious peaches were spilled in the roadway and the trailer was somewhat damaged.

The trolley escaped with nothing more serious than a disabled fender. Circulation of books at the Ontario Public Library for the month of July showed a gain of more than 500 volumes over the same month of the year 1920, according to figures just given out by Miss K. A. Monroe, librarian. Each month since the first of the year has shown marked gains, the gain for the months being in excess of 5000 volumes and is considered an excellent proof of the city's continued growth. Circulation for July, 1921, was 4557 volumes as against 4044 for July, 1920.

Mystery surrounding the finding of a motor car Tuesday morning in the driveway at the home of William Ramige, 14 West H Street, with no one to claim it, was solved late that night when it developed that Nathaniel Burchell, the owner, had parked it there, while he accompanied a son of the Ramige family to Los Angeles in another machine. Not having been informed of Burchell's intention, members of the household naturally supposed that a stolen car had been parked in their yard and instructed the police to remove it. The transaction cost the owner of the car $2 to get the car out of "hock."

News of the death in Los Angeles of T. A. Williams as the result of burns sustained in a gasoline explosion in his garage was received with deep regret in Ontario, where he was well known. Some two years ago, Mr. Williams spent considerable time in Ontario, being interested in the move at that time to convert the Hotel Casa Blanca into a national rectory for Episcopal ministers. Mrs. Williams, who was herself severely burned in her efforts to save her husband, is a sister of Mrs. Baker P. Lee, wife of the former rector of Christ Church, Los Angeles.

Another substantial addition to Ontario's residential district was the forecast yesterday with the issuance by the city building department to a handsome 3-room dwelling at C and Vine avenue. The Campbell Construction Company has the contract and the residence is to cost $8,000.

Plans for a visit to his old home in Kansas City, Mo., were abruptly halted Wednesday when J. J. Braxdale sustained a fracture of the right arm while attempting to crank a motor car at his home, 400 East California street. He had planned to leave for the middle west on Wednesday evening, but the trip had to be postponed.

That Ontario's water supply is in the "best possible condition" was the declaration Wednesday of E. H. Gondey, state sanitation inspector, according to a communication received from the official by Dr. S. P. S. Edwards, city health officer. High purity tests were reported from all samples of water taken from the city mains and reservoirs.

HIS BEQUEST

A lawyer was known to be a bit grasping. He had just made out a will for an old lady client, who was passing away. The next day the old lady, very near the end, said to him: "About my will—I've added something to it. I've given—you—" "Just one minute, my good friend," said the lawyer, wishing to have witnesses for the remark. So he hurriedly called the family in and when all were assembled he said to his old client: "Now, say what you were going to say." "I've given—you—" and she stopped, her breathing becoming more and more labored. "Yes, yes," urged the lawyer. Then she finished: "—a great—deal—of trouble!" — Ladies Home Journal.
